Die Veneris 21. April. 1643.

IT is ordered by the Houſe of Commons, That the perſons named in the Schedule here under written, taking with them the Conſtables of each ſeverall pariſh, ſhall be authoriſed (and are hereby required) to make dilligent ſearch in all ſuch houſes and places in their ſeverall and reſpective pariſhes as they ſhall think fit; for the finding, apprehending, and diſarming of ſuch dangerous and other ſuſpected perſons as do remain and lurk within the ſaid pariſhes, and cannot give an account of any juſt cauſe of their being there. And that they bring them before the Committee of Examinations, there to be further dealt withall as the caſe ſhall require. And it is further ordered, that for the better execution of this Order, Colonell Manwaring, Captain Harvey; and Captain Titchburn, and every of them, with a competent number of ſouldiers ſhall be ayding and aſſiſting to the ſaid Pariſhioners upon all occaſions, (timely notice being firſt given to the ſaid Colonell and Captains, by the ſaid ſeverall and reſpective Pariſhioners.)

H: Elſynge, Cler. Parl. D. Com.

London, Printed for Edw: Husbands, April, 22. 1643.

180093